

Daughter

Written and Arranged by Amy Woodburn
Lyrics by Amy Woodburn
Sung by Lizzie Freeborn
Produced and Arranged by Gareth Young, Cube Recording

What would I tell I daughter
When she is grown like me
When all that I could ever want
Is a daughter to be free
To fail and fall and fail some more -
To be blind then see
To be safe in her darkness
I would gift such luxury

What would I tell a daughter
When she found how dumb is man
To set that siren sounding
And not search for safer ground?
How would I wear that question
So simple from her lips,
Could we not hear it ringing
Or did we not give a damn?

I can hear her singing
We have only got now (x4)

Daughter
CHORDS

Pre-intro

F#7
(Hold)

Intro:

Second half of verse chords....

F#7 Bmaj/F#
Bm/F#base Gmdim -
D C
G D C D C

Verse 1:

 D C
What would I tell I daughter
 G D C
When she is grown like me
 D C
When all that I could ever want
 G B7
Is a daughter to be free
 F#7 Bmaj/F#
To fail and fall and fail some more
Bm/F# Gmdim -
To be blind then see
 D C
To be safe in her darkness
 G D C D C
I would gift such luxury

D C G D

Verse 2

 D C
What would I tell a daughter
 G D C
When she found how dumb is man
 D C
To set that siren sounding
 G B7
And not search for safer ground?
 F#7 Bmaj/F#
How would I wear that question
 Bm/F# Gmdim

So simple from her lips,

D C

Could we not hear it ringing

G D

Or did we not give a damn?

Break

C D C D

C C E

C C E

C C

Outro

E F#maj7 Asus2 E

E F#maj7 Asus2 E

E F#maj7

I can hear her singing

Asus2 E

We have only got now (x4)